

Welcome to the 2019 Leeds Queer Film Festival!

21-24 March 2019, Live Art Bistro

We are excited to return to Live Art Bistro for the main event of our year: a four-day festival featuring some of the best and freshest feature-length and short films in queer cinema from around the world.

Close to 500 films were submitted for consideration this year. We're delighted that so many great films are being made, and regretful that we can't share them all with you.

The programme represents a range of styles, subject matter, countries, and emotions, while always aiming to centre those who are often pushed to the margins.

This has been a very exciting and busy year for us. Our festival opens with Something Said, winner of Leeds International Film Festival's first ever Queer Shorts Competition. We are extremely proud to have curated the Queer Shorts programmes in collaboration with LIFF. It is an excellent opportunity to bring great queer films to a wider audience at such a prestigious event, and we will be back to help LIFF again this year.

The first ever Alternative Pride Leeds was also a great success. In partnership with several organisations (Love Muscle, The Bayard Project, Our Space and others), we presented a weekend of workshops, film screenings, discussions, crafts, games and a drag ball to create a space for radical queers to come together and celebrate during Pride.

We were very happy to contribute to the Hear Trans Voices panel which Trans Leeds organised in November, by selecting a few films to show at the start. Trans Leeds is putting on another panel as part of our festival, which will be in the Angela Morley Room.

All of this hard work and collaboration was recognised by Cinema for All when they named us Community Event of the Year. We are thrilled to have been chosen from events around the country, based on the contributions we are making to the queer community of Leeds and beyond.

All of this happens because of the hard work of some tireless volunteers. The people who organise and staff the festival all do so for free; any money we take in from ticket or food sales goes directly into covering the costs of the festival, including financial awards for filmmakers so they can continue their awesome work. We wouldn't have a festival without the talent and passion of these amazing artists. Special thanks also to the folk who helped us screen the film submissions; some watched more than 200!

And none of it would be at all possible without our kick-ass audience: you! So thank you for buying a ticket, watching a film, attending a workshop, visiting a stall, eating a hot dog, dancing at the party, or shouting about us on social media. Keep telling us what we're doing right and what we can do better. We want our festival to be the best it can be!

Festival Information

Aims

We create spaces to showcase queer cinema with a focus on independent and DIY films. We screen films that elevate and prioritise the voices and work of those most marginalised within our LGBTQ+ communities. LQFF is run by unpaid volunteers and we are not for profit; money raised from our festival goes towards future events and supporting queer filmmakers. We aim to make our events as friendly, affordable, accessible and inclusive as we can. By bringing people together and building links, we hope to strengthen our communities.

Spaces

Angela Morley

(1924-2009) was born in Kirkstall, Leeds. She composed and arranged music for many films and TV shows including Watership Down, Peeping Tom and Dynasty. In 1977 she was the first openly transgender nominee for an Oscar for her work on the film, The Slipper and the Rose.

Pratibha Parmar

(1955-) is an award-winning lesbian film maker. After earning her degree in Human Purposes and Communications from Bradford University she has gone on to make documentaries and feature films. These include Khush (1991), about the erotic world of South Asian queers and Nina's Heavenly Delights (2006), a Scottish-Bollywood lesbian romcom!

Tickets

We are committed to making the festival affordable for everyone.

We decided that a sliding scale was the best way to allow everyone to afford a ticket that is within their financial reach whilst also ensuring the festival can continue each year. We ask that you be honest with yourself and your financial situation. If you purchase a ticket at the lowest end of the scale when you could afford the higher ticket prices, it makes it harder for us to provide financial flexibility to those who most need it. Tickets are grouped by day and are available on the door.

Venue and access

Live Art Bistro is an artist led venue and curatorial team based in Leeds. Our common goal is to support the growth of Live Art practices in the region by providing space and opportunities to local artists, whilst also encouraging artists from further afield to present work in the city. Live Art Bistro is voluntarily run and relies heavily on the support given by the local artistic community.

1 - 2 Regent Street

Leeds

LS2 7QA

The venue is wheelchair accessible with a single step entrance with ramp. Off-street parking is available nearby (charges may apply). All toilets are for all genders. An accessible toilet will be available.

There is a range of seating available in the screening room: hard backed chairs, sofas, beanbags. If you need to enter the screening room first or need a particular place in the room please let an organiser know. All films will be screened with English subtitles (unless stated otherwise) and a few will have subtitles and captions. The film schedule is also available in larger print. Please contact us for a copy.

On Sunday, there will be BSL communication support for the introductions to the films as well as the workshops/panels that day. We may be able to provide BSL on other days of the festival as well - please get in touch to discuss.

If you would like to discuss any specific access needs please contact us in advance: leedsqueerfilmfestival@gmail.com

Safer spaces

Leeds Queer Film Festival is a community event in a shared space. We strive to make that space welcoming; audience members, organisers, speakers and volunteers are all expected to act with care and respect. We would like people to think about the impact their behaviour may have on others and to act accordingly, and we know that some people do face abusive, oppressive and discriminatory behaviour in queer spaces. The organising team behind Leeds Queer Film Festival have written a safer spaces agreement which can be found on our website and front desk at the festival.

Please take the time to have a read and, if there are any issues, please speak to any of us or email LQFFSaferSpace@gmail.com.
